

All Risk Parcel Post Clause

This insurance is against all risk of loss or damage to the subject matter insured, but shall in no case be deemed to cover loss or damage arising from the atmospheric or climatic conditions or from wear and tear, gradual deterioration or depreciation or by moth or vermin or loss damage or expense proximately caused by delay or inherent vice or nature of subject matter insured.

The insurance attaches from the time of issue of the receipt by the Receiving Post Office until the goods are delivered to the consignees or their agents.

Addressee's receipt on the form of the Post Office for the parcel with seals intact to be taken as proof of delivery.

In the event of loss or damage, notice must be given to the Postal Authorities at destination and a certificate obtained from them, notice must be given to the Company's representative or M/s Lloyd's at destination.